Diane Powers Sets June 21 Date With Robert C. Buzan

Wedding bells will ring on June 21 at the Nativity Catholic Church for Miss Diane Powers and Robert C. Buzan.

The announcement of their daughter's forthcoming marriage is being made by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry M. Buzan, 1707 W. 248th St., Lomita.

The future bride was a 1957 graduate of Torrance High where she was a member of the Thespians and Y groups. She is now employed by an office supply firm here.

Her husband-to-be completed Narbonne High in 1955 and attended Harbor Junior College where he is affiliated with Theta Xi Omega. He is also employed in Torrance.

Both of the engaged pair are attending night classes at Harbor Junior College.

ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Bettina Miller and Mrs. Addie Parks members of the Pacific Palisades Jesterettes, entertained their group at a dinner at the Jump 'N Jack restaurant. They had as their guests members of the Torrance Chapter Jesterettes.

HOME FROM SCHOOL

Kent Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jackson, 3480 Del Amo Ave., arrived home this week end for mid-semester vacation. He is a student at University of California at Davis where he is majoring in veterinary.

Las Vecinas Plan Gala Circus Day

Knight of Columbus Hall in Redondo Beach will become a gala circus tent complete with billboards, barkers, and Ring Master Robert Pinkney, Saturday, when members of Las Vecinas Woman's Club entertain their husbands.

Mrs. Robert Anderson has planned a variety of games and hostesses will be Mmes. Warren Post, Thomas O'Malley, Matt Brunning, John Geisler, George Zuber and Stanley Perry.

The Las Vecinas chorus under the direction of Mrs. E. R. Harvey will take part in a program presented by Mrs. Theodore Linhart and other members of the club.

Mrs. Hugh Sutherland will present prizes for the most original costume, the funniest costume and the best dressed couple.

All this activity will be topped off with a buffet dinner.

Mmes. Carl Wolff, Wilburn French, Quinton Johnson, William Denning, Floyd Newton and Roy Menashe have aided in preparations for the 300 expected to attend the affair.

FUN AND FROLIC... Imaginations are running wild as members of Las Vecinas Club plan their circus party for their husbands next Saturday evening. There will be prizes for the best costumes. A preview of what can be expected (back row) includes Mrs. Maurice Wilson, Mrs. Hugh Sutherland, Mrs. John Doyle. That lion is Maurice Wilson in the front row with Mrs. John Kinsey.

Juniors Hold Initiation for New Members

Membership list of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club was increased by 19 Wednesday evening as initiation ceremonies were held at the clubhouse.

Using the theme, "Good Ship U.S.S. Torrance Junior Woman's Club," the evening was under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. E. Allen.

Mothers were honored at the initiation dinner and guests were entertained by the Junior Chorus. Directed by Mrs. Allan Hofferber and accompanied by Mrs. Richard Brundin, the chorus is composed of Mmes. Donald Carlson, Clifford Trezise, James Van Dyck, Charles Briner, Richard Healy, George Post, Charles Blahnik, Earle Peterson, C. Albert Smith and K. M. Wyatt.

Mrs. John W. Chadwick of Chadwick Gardens spoke on flower arranging.

Decorations were arranged by Mrs. Frank Neff Jr., and her committee: Mmes. K. M. Wyatt, W. M. Montgomery, J. G. Louyer, and W. S. Starr.

DAR Chooses Delegates

Susan B. Anthony Chapter, DAR, met at the University club with the regent, Mrs. Thomas McClendon conducting a business meeting at which the annual reports were given.

Delegates chosen to represent the chapter at state conference in Los Angeles Feb. 25-28 were Mmes. Thomas McClendon, Loyd Tindler, Max Long and Mrs. Mildred Murphy. Delegates to the Continental Congress in Washington in April will be Mrs. McClendon and Mrs. Martha Colvin.

Guests at luncheon were Mmes. Alta Pritchard, Clara Poulson, Zuma Smith, also Mrs. Charles Maher of Moorhead, Minn.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Lillian Spence, chaplain, read a prayer which was written and offered by George Washington at his first inauguration.

New Year for Charity Begins for Volunteers

Beginning its fifth year, the Peninsula Volunteers, Section 49 of the Needlework Guild of America, will hold its annual business meeting on Monday, Feb. 3, at 10 a.m. at El Retiro Park, 126 Vista Del Parque, Hollywood Riviera.

Presiding will be the group's new president, Mrs. Donald H. Earl. She will introduce her new board: Mrs. Richard W. Park, first vice president; Mrs. Eltinge Grinnell, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Ashley, recording secretary; Mrs. Henry A. Graef, treasurer; Mrs. Stan Peters, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Seymour Y. Warner, Jr., liaison officer.

Newly appointed chairmen for the year are Mrs. Adolph Larson, welfare chairman; Mrs. Marti Jaconi, sewing chairman; Mrs. J. Weare Pearson II, chairman of the speakers' bureau, and Mrs. James Ingebretson, junior past president and advisor.

Honored guests coming from Los Angeles will be Mrs. William E. Palmer, past president of the Los Angeles chapter; Mrs. Benjamin P. Griffith, president of the Los Angeles chapter; Mrs. Nellie E. Cloes, second vice president of the Los Angeles chapter; Mrs. Stephen Bollinger, chairman of outlying areas, and Mrs. Gwendolyn R. Morse, state chairman.

Local guests will be Mrs. Claude E. Jones, Sandpiper president, and Mrs. E. Mason Proutie, Sandpiper welfare chairman. Representing the Assistance League will be Mrs. Milton Meroth, president, and Mrs. Bernard McAllister, welfare chairman.

The Peninsula Volunteers at last year's ingathering tallied 6428 garments. This is the charity that helps charity. There are no dues or paid officers. The only requirement for membership is two new garments a year.

In each area there is a capable director who oversees the many neighborhood groups. She is assisted by a few or many co-directors depending on the number of women involved. Directors for 1958 are as follows: Hermosa Beach, Mrs. D. W. Gardiner; Hollywood Riviera, Mrs. W. A. Garbrant; Manhattan Beach, Mrs. Sippi Nazarian; Palos Verdes Drive East, Mrs. Herbert W. Burns; Palos Verdes Drive North, Mrs. H. E. Kidder; Palos Verdes Estates, Mrs. Henry Holden; Portuguese Bend, Mrs. Conrad Jones; Redondo Beach, Mrs. A. J. Schwartz; Rolling Hills, Mrs. Owen Goodman, and San Pedro, Mrs. Vincent Kaliterna. Anyone interested in forming a group should contact the nearest director.

Local agencies receiving garments from the Needlework Guild are the Assistance League of San Pedro, Barton Hill School, Del Amo School, Harlan Shoemaker School, Harbor Health Center, Harbor General Hospital in Torrance, Mahar House CYO, Wilmington; Pueblo Center, Toberman Settlement House, the Sandpiper Shoe Fund of Manhattan Beach, and newly added this year—the Hawaiian Avenue School in Wilmington.

This year a new policy of having various areas act as hostess groups will be inaugurated under the direction of the first vice president, Mrs. Richard W. Park. Mrs. H. E. Kidder, of the Palos Verdes Drive North section of Rolling Hills, will act as hostess, assisted by her committee of co-directors. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Park.
